

Connect Vacancy: Harpenden

Chef Manager

Experienced Chef Manager required to work in the catering facility of a prestigious school in Harpenden. The position is part-time, working two days per week, for a total of 16 hours per week. You will be working during term-time only, at a rate of £16.66 per hour. Our ideal candidate will be dedicated, have a passion for fresh food and be able to lead the catering team.

You will need to have a good knowledge of allergens and have been in a similar position for at least 2 years. Your duties will include the overall management of the catering operation, providing nutritious dishes using fresh ingredients, ordering, menu writing, company bookwork and staff recruitment, training and supervision.

Uniform is provided along with a meal whilst on duty. Applicants should have the relevant qualifications and proven experience in a similar role. Please note an enhanced DBS check will be required for this role. In return we provide support from your Operations Manager and Head Office staff, plus company benefits and excellent training opportunities.

If you think you have the skills for this position, please email your CV to Tim Horton:
